PROFILE SUMMARY

I am a first-year BSIT student with a strong passion for technology and continuous learning. During my two years in the Computer Systems Servicing (CSS) strand, I developed foundational knowledge in computer hardware, software, troubleshooting, and basic networking. I am technology-exposed, adaptable to new environments, and capable of learning new systems quickly. My strong communication skills, problem-solving abilities, and fast typing skills help me perform efficiently both independently and as part of a team.
